Choir of Hard Knocks

Don't miss the incredible story of the Choir of Hard Knocks in the summer issue of the GALAgram. The Choir of Hard Knocks is an eclectic group of disadvantaged and homeless people who have come together to create an unlikely musical phenomenon.

This group of around 50 homeless and disadvantaged men and women, have come together under the leadership of Founding Choir Director Jonathon Welch, former Opera Australia Principal. With his guidance and expertise they have beaten the odds, performed to 1600 people at Melbourne Town Hall, released their first CD "From the Heart - A Christmas Wish" and now appear regularly around Melbourne at corporate and community events.

Artistic Director-in-Residence Sought

GALA Choruses to Add a Part-Time Rotating Artistic Director-in-Residence Position

GALA Choruses seeks an Artistic Director-in-Residence to offer member choruses artistic mentorship and to provide artistic vision and direction to GALA Choruses events, projects and programs. The position has been initially designed as a rotating appointment with a one year term. The initial term would begin January 1, 2008.

The Artistic Director-in-Residence for GALA Choruses must bring a proven track record of choral conducting abilities along with exceptional communication skills and an appreciation for musical excellence. Demonstrated ability to work with and publicly represent the GLBT community is a must. Ten years choral conducting experience and BA required.

Salary information available upon request. Send letter of interest and resume by August 31, 2007, to: generalmanager@galachoruses.org
