Hi,

One of the things I keep hearing over and over is the need for more opportunity for discourse among our women's choruses specifically. In response to that need we have developed a session specifically for you. The details are provided below. I hope you can join us.

Women's Chorus Roundtable Discussion

On Thursday March 27 we will be holding a women's chorus roundtable discussion by conference call from 5:30 PM to 6:30 PM EST. The primary purpose for the session is to provide an opportunity for our women's chorus leadership to discuss topics of common interest. One topic for discussion is how GALA Choruses can better serve its women's chorus members. Please email info@galachoruses.org to register for the session and suggest topics for discussion. An agenda for the session and instructions to logon to the call will be emailed to those who register. There is no charge for the session.
